

CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT 2007 (GROCERY GOODS UNDERTAKINGS) REGULATIONS 2016

21 responses received in early 2015 to the public consultation process on the draft Grocery Goods Regulations. Following the signing into law of the Regulations by Minister Bruton on 27 January 2016, the Department took the decision to publish the submissions on its website on Friday 12 February 2016.

Of the 21 responses received, 18 have been posted on the Department's website in their entirety. Due to confidential information contained in three of the submissions, two have been posted with relevant redactions as requested by the organisations making the submissions and one has been withheld in its entirety at the request of the relevant respondent. The respondents, whose submissions are published either entirely or in part, are as follows:

1. Dr Paul Gorecki;
2. Irish Creamery Milk Suppliers Association (ICMSA);
3. Consumers' Association of Ireland (CAI);
4. Stonehouse Marketing Limited;
5. National Milk Agency;
6. Food & Drink Industry Ireland (FDII);
7. Lidl Ireland GmbH;
8. RGDATA;
9. Irish Farmers Association (IFA);
10. Musgrave Group;
11. BWG Foods;
12. Irish Small & Medium Enterprises Association (ISME);
13. National Dairy Council (NDC);
14. Irish Bread Bakers Association (IBBA);
15. Alcohol Beverage Federation of Ireland (ABFI);
16. Meat Industry Ireland (MII);
17. Barry Group;
18. Tesco Ireland;
19. Retail Ireland;
20. Law Society of Ireland.

Due to issues of commercial sensitivity, the Department has not published the submission from Aldi Stores (Ireland) Limited at the request of the company.
