During the 1st quarter of 2024, MFI continued to engage in a range of Marketing and PR initiatives.

Radio Advertising:

We did not run a radio advertising campaign in the quarter but plan to run one towards the end of Q2 / early Q3.

Digital Advertising /social media:

We continue with ongoing promotion through our social media channels, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, and LinkedIn to maintain strong brand awareness with digital advertising campaigns primarily focussed on Google and Facebook. We are managing our messaging in our social media to reflect the feedback from our Q3 customer survey.

Events/Webinars/Sponsorships:

We continue our representation at in person events and webinars. We have held webinars in collaboration with a number of the Local Enterprise Offices and these webinars have been well attended and seem to be well received by the LEO clients. We have recently initiated a monthly webinar series for anyone interested in Microfinance Ireland and have included the calendar of webinars on our website.

We were sponsors of a number of events for start ups during 2023. We believe that sponsoring events and competitions is a good for building awareness and we are currently considering our sponsorships for 2024.

Performance:

Q1 2024 was behind budget and the corresponding period in 2023.

Our approval rate year to date is running at c. 61% which is higher than pervious years.

Applications from Start Ups accounted for c. 50% of all applications and c. 40% of business funded in the period.

In the year to date, applications from Female business owners accounted for 30% of all applications which compares to c.34% for the year 2023.

Appeals Process

The purpose of the Microfinance Ireland appeals process is to support an applicant who wishes to have a review of an MFI decision to declining a loan application.

MFI will appoint an Appeal Assessor to carry out an independent review of the original loan decision. The assessor who was involved in the original decision will not be involved in the appeals process. The outcome of this review is communicated in writing to the applicant within 15 business days of receipt of the written appeal. The credit decision of the Appeal Assessor is independent of MFI management and is final. There have been 8 appeals in 2024 and 3 of these cases have been approved on appeal. These figures are included in the YTD approval figures.

Complaints

No complaints were received by the business in Quarter 1 2024.

Business Failures

YTD 2024, 9 businesses of our borrowers have failed. While any business failure is regrettable, it was anticipated from the outset that a not insignificant proportion of projects supported by the Microfinance Ireland might fail. It is a feature of microfinance (given the higher risk profile) that even with strong business supports, failures will occur.

On an ongoing basis, Microfinance Ireland, in conjunction with other agencies, works with every customer at risk to minimise business failure.
