

Data Protection Statement

Shannon Estuary Economic Taskforce

Your privacy is important to us and we are fully committed to keeping your personal information safe. This data protection statement is intended to provide you with information about the personal information we collect about you and how that information is used and shared. It also sets out your privacy rights. Please take a moment to familiarise yourself with our privacy practices so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your personal data.

1. Data Controller

The Minister for Enterprise, Trade and Employment \(the “Department”\) is the Data Controller for the Shannon Estuary Economic Taskforce.

This means that we have certain responsibilities when we process or “use” your Personal Data. Part of these responsibilities include that we provide you with information about your personal data. This information is set out in this Data Protection Statement.

2. Our Data Protection Officer

We have appointed a Data Protection Officer, Ms. Celyna Coughlan for you to contact if you have any questions regarding this data protection statement, our privacy practices or if you wish to exercise your data rights. Our Data Protection Officer can be reached by e-mail at: dataprotection@enterprise.gov.ie. We value your opinions. Should you have any questions or comments related to this data protection statement, please contact us at: dataprotection@enterprise.gov.ie.

3. What is the Shannon Estuary Economic Taskforce?

The Programme for Government – ‘Our Shared Future’, together with the The National Economic Recovery Plan committed to the establishment of a taskforce to consider the regional economic development potential of the Shannon Estuary. The Shannon Estuary Economic Taskforce is now being established with a remit to assess the strategic strengths of the Estuary across transport and logistics, manufacturing, renewable energy, and tourism, in both a national and international context. The Taskforce will also specify the policy development and investment required to exploit those areas of potential. It is envisaged that the Taskforce will produce a report and action plan to be considered by Government in the second half of 2022.

4. Information we may receive in relation to the Shannon Estuary Economic Taskforce

In the context of the Shannon Estuary Economic Taskforce, the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment will receive information that has been provided by you as part of the expression of interest process to join the Taskforce. If you are selected to join the Taskforce, we will also use this information to contact you in the context of the work of the Taskforce including, for example, informing you about scheduled meetings and other related matters relating to the work of the Taskforce. This personal data will include information such as your name, contact details, e-mail address, job title, and the name of your employer/organisation.

The reason for receiving this information is set out in Paragraph 5 below.

5. Why are we using your personal data?

We will use your personal data in order to communicate with you in relation to your expression of interest in the context of selecting members to the Shannon Estuary Economic Taskforce. The data you provide will also be used to assess suitability for membership of the Taskforce. In order to select candidates from the expression of interest process and to maintain follow-up contact related to the meetings and work of the Taskforce, the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment needs to process your personal data as set out in Paragraph 4 above. It is for this purpose that the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment will process or “use” your personal data.

6. What is our legal basis for using your personal data?

We are required by data protection law to indicate to you the legal basis which relates to our use of your personal data. These are (as relevant):

1. Article 6(1)(a) GDPR - the data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes.

It is important to note that you can withdraw your consent at any time by e-mailing us at: ShannonTaskforce@enterprise.gov.ie

You should be made aware however that if you withdraw your consent, we will not be able to contact you in relation to the Shannon Estuary Economic Taskforce, and subsequently your membership of the Taskforce may cease.

7. Who has access to the data?

Staff in the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment with responsibility for providing the Secretariat to support the Shannon Estuary Economic Taskforce.

The processing of personal information will be undertaken by officials of the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment for the purposes of selecting members to join the Taskforce from an expression of interest process and for all necessary follow-up and communication with selected members in the context of the Taskforce and its meetings and work.

Your personal data may also be shared by us with third parties to meet our legal obligations, applicable regulation or other lawful requests.

8. Data storage and retention

The Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment stores your personal data securely and will not retain or use your personal information for any longer than is necessary.

The personal information provided by you will be retained securely by the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment for a period of Three Years.

These personal data will be securely destructed in line with our records management processes upon the dissolution of the Shannon Estuary Economic Taskforce.

9. International transfers

We do not transfer your personal data outside the European Economic Area \(EEA\).

10. Your data rights

You have certain rights under data-protection law in relation to how we use your personal information. You have the right, free of charge, to:

- Request a copy of the personal information we hold about you. You can do this by completing a Subject Access Request (SAR) form. A copy of the form is available here.
- Rectify any inaccurate personal information we hold about you. If your personal data is incomplete, you have the right to have data completed, including by means of providing supplementary information.
- Restrict processing of your personal information in certain limited circumstances (e.g. if you have contested the accuracy of your personal data, for a period enabling us to verify accuracy).
- Not be subject to a decision which is based solely on automated processing where that decision produces a legal effect on you or otherwise significantly affects you. We do not make automated decisions of this nature.

We may take measures to verify your identity. We will do this by reference to copies of acceptable identification documentation supplied by you.

11. Making a complaint

In the first instance, we would ask you to contact us directly if you have concerns about how we process your personal data. You can do this by e-mailing us at: dataprotection@enterprise.gov.ie.

You can also Make a Complaint with the Data Protection Commission \(DPC\) if you have concerns about how we process your personal data.

12. Changes to this data protection statement

We may update this data protection statement from time to time. If we make changes, we will notify you prior to the changes taking effect by posting a statement on our website.
